Zoom into History Series

Monday, November 16 at 6:30 p.m.

“Tactics of the Great War”
 with Jeff Hawks

“The Riddle of Trench Warfare”: Why did World War I bog down in trench warfare? How did the Allies breakout in the end? Why did it take so long to overcome the problems of trench warfare? Army Heritage Center Foundation Education Director Jeff Hawks will talk about the tactics of World War I and why the problem of trench warfare was so hard to solve.

North Eastern York County History In Preservation (NEYCHIP), AllVets of York and Red Land Community Library have partnered to bring you some of your favorite Historians and speakers this Fall. Register at yorklibraries.org. Note: If you register for one program, you will be registered for the series. Stay tuned for a new Zoom into History series after the holidays.

Stop by the library to see the display of military items during November. We have related military books for sale in the lobby. Veteran's Day is November 11th. To all the men and women who served or continue to serve our country, we say "Thank you for your service."
