MARTIN LIBRARY HONORS

Honoring Peter P. Brubaker

Pete and his wife, Meg, moved to York in 1977 when he accepted a position with the Susquehanna Pfaltzgraff Co. After serving as the Company's VP Finance/CFO for 15 years, he was named President/CEO of Susquehanna's Radio, Cable, and Internet Operations in 1995. Pete retired in 2005 and formed Hammer Creek Enterprises, LLC, a private investment company, where he remains Principal.

Pete's involvement with Martin Library began in 1996 when he was named Board President, a role he held until 1999. He served on the York County Libraries Board from 2015 through 2021. Pete remains active on the YCL Finance Committee and as a Legacy Society member. As an advocate for improving the school readiness of Pennsylvania's children, he was a founding Director of "Focus on Our Future", and Chairman of the Pennsylvania Partnerships for Children Board. He was also a member of the Pennsylvania Business Community's Early Care and Education Task Force, the CHIP Advisory Council and the Pre-K Counts Executive Leadership Council. In 2008, he was appointed by Governor Rendell to Pennsylvania's Early Learning Investment Commission.

Currently, Pete serves on the Board of the WellSpan Health System. He previously served as Chairman of the York County Economic Development Corp. and as a Director of Snyder's Lance Inc, United Fiber & Data, LLC, The National Cable & Telecommunications Association, Cable Television Laboratories, the Lancaster Cleft Palate Clinic, the Appell Center for the Performing Arts, and Historic York Inc.

Pete received a BA in Economics from Wesleyan University and an MBA from Harvard Business School. He served four years in the Air Force, including a year in Viet Nam. Pete and Meg have two sons and four grandchildren. Patrick and Jessica live in York with Colin and Sean. Joshua and Jennifer live in Lancaster with Addy and Will.
